

- 2021 season now open
- Sign your CSA, and make and change marketing nominations for the 2019 - 2021 seasons

You can now sign your CSA and make marketing nominations for the 2021 season. Forward pricing for 2021 is also open, with the initial exposure limit set at 40%.

As per your CSA, in order to nominate forward pricing and create orders for the 2021 season, you'll first need to make a 2021 GEI marketing nomination via the Agreements page on GrowerWeb. This is the same process you use to complete your CSA. If you need help, watch our instructional video, download the step-by-step guide, or give us a call.

Through this process you can choose to nominate for one to three seasons, split your nomination between marketers, or nominate a portion of your sugar for future seasons now and the rest later.

You can also change a marketing nomination for the 2019 to 2021 seasons, up until its relevant Marketing Nomination Date, depending on whether you have any pricing orders filled. Contact your marketer to find out how much of your production is available to change.

For more information on how to make or change a marketing nomination, please contact a member of the Grower Pricing Team or download our information sheet.
