

QSL Weekly Update

Welcome to your weekly overview of key QSL news and information.

Townsville shiploading

Burdekin growers visited the Bulk Sugar Terminal in Townsville this week to witness a QSL sugar sale being loaded for export.

Regional meetings

QSL Treasury Manager Ginette Barrett met with growers in the Proserpine and Plane Creek milling districts this week as part of her regular program of regional visits. If you'd like to book some time with Ginette during her next round of visits, please contact your local QSL rep.

Next Target Price Pool roll approaching

Growers in the 2018-Season Target Price Pool are reminded that any unfilled orders beyond 20 September 2018 will be rolled to the March 2019 Contract and costs may apply.

2021-Season grower-managed pricing

QSL is now accepting grower-managed pricing orders for the 2021 Season.

Growers who wish to access this pricing must first ensure that they have both a valid Cane Supply Agreement (CSA) and QSL Marketing Nomination in place for the 2021 Season (please contact your bargaining agent if you are unsure of the current status of your CSA). Unfortunately Mackay Sugar Growers cannot price with QSL for the 2020 or 2021 Seasons until an On-Supply Agreement is in place with their miller.

QSL Market Update

The Aussie Dollar finally broke the range and headed sub 0.7300 in a dramatic sell off on Friday afternoon, hitting a session low of 0.7287, in levels we haven't seen for 18 months. Sugar continued to try and break above 11c/lb a few times last week but was unsuccessful. The Oct18 ICE 11 contract closed the week at 10.57c/lb.
