

QSL Weekly Update

Welcome to your weekly overview of key QSL news and information.

Pizza and Pricing in Tully

Tully Growers can get the latest on the global sugar market and an update on their 2019 QSL pricing options over a beer at QSL's Pizza and Pricing Night this Tuesday. QSL CEO Greg Beashel will host the free event, which kicks off at 6.30pm at the Tully Senior Citizens Hall. For those who can't make Tuesday night, a breakfast session will also be held at the same venue at 6.30am Wednesday morning. Please RSVP for catering purposes to Daniel Messina on 0429 660 238.

Call for action on Indian sugar subsidies

The governments of the world's major sugar exporting countries are being urged to band together and take an urgent complaint against India to the World Trade Organisation. The Global Sugar Alliance of exporting countries says the Indian Government's approval of a Rs. 5500 crore (USD760 million) support package for its sugar industry, including assistance to export up to 5 million tonnes of subsidised sugar, is a snub to world trade rules, adding a new layer of distortion to the world sugar market.

QSL Market Update

Sugar prices went in reverse last week. The OCT18 contract made its low on the Tuesday at 10.43c/lb before rising to a high of 11.10c/lb on the Thursday and eventually closing the week down 32 points at 10.84c/lb. The Aussie Dollar started the week at 0.7151 before gradually increasing to break the 0.7292 barrier. Rebounding Emerging Market sentiment as well as a lift in commodities provided some support to the Aussie Dollar, however the US economy and trade wars continue to dominate the AUD trading landscape more generally.
