- Crushing operations are on hold at Invicta Mill due to a fire in the Powerlink-owned substation about 5am today.
- Powerlink is working to restore power to the factory.
- Harvesting in the Invicta Mill area was suspended early this morning, and there will be no harvesting at Invicta tomorrow.
- We are transferring Invicta cane already in bins to Kalamia Mill.
- Kalamia Mill loadings will be reduced tomorrow and Thursday to accommodate the transferred cane.
- I will provide an update tomorrow.

Best regards
