

Our new website is now live

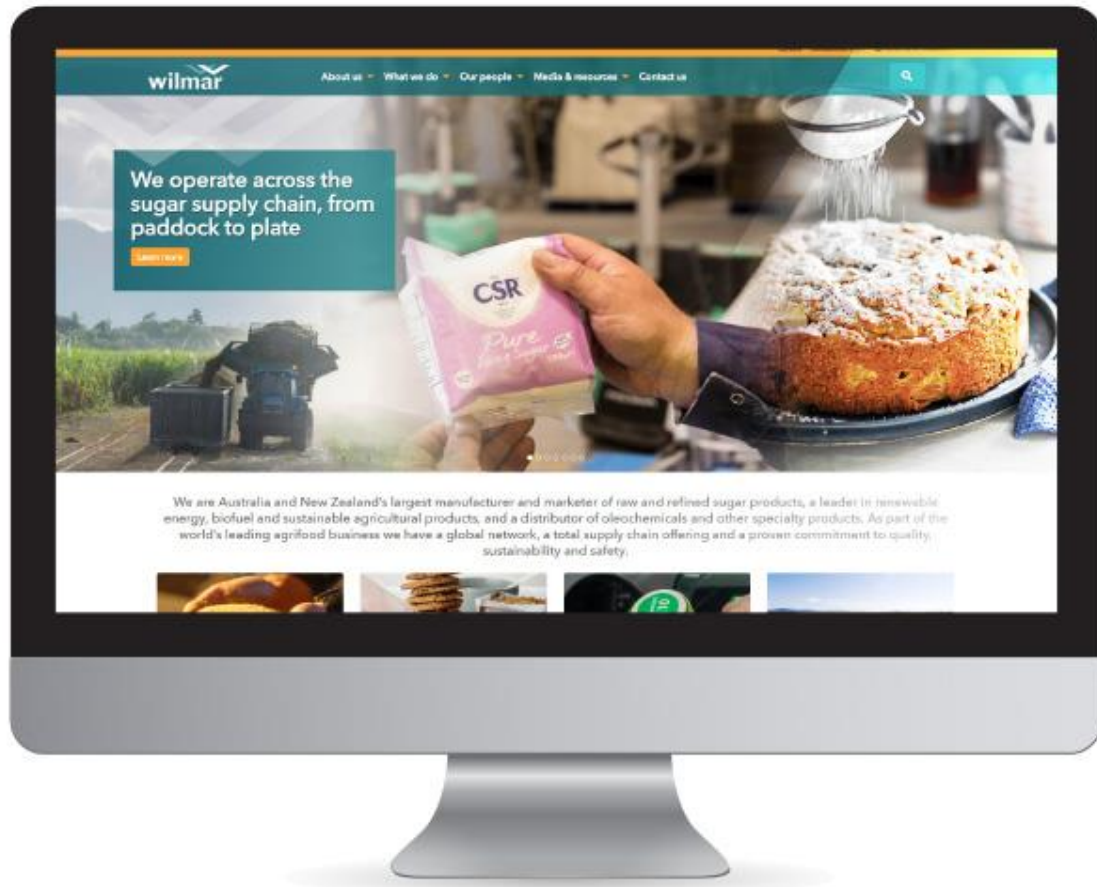

We've launched a new website that represents the company's operations across Australia and New Zealand, and how we operate across the sugar supply chain.

It showcases all of our operations on one platform including our raw sugar mills, sugar marketing services, Wilmar AgServices, Wilmar BioEthanol, Sugar Australia and New Zealand Sugar.

Our current website will be retired on Friday, 12 June. After that, you will be automatically redirected to our new website.

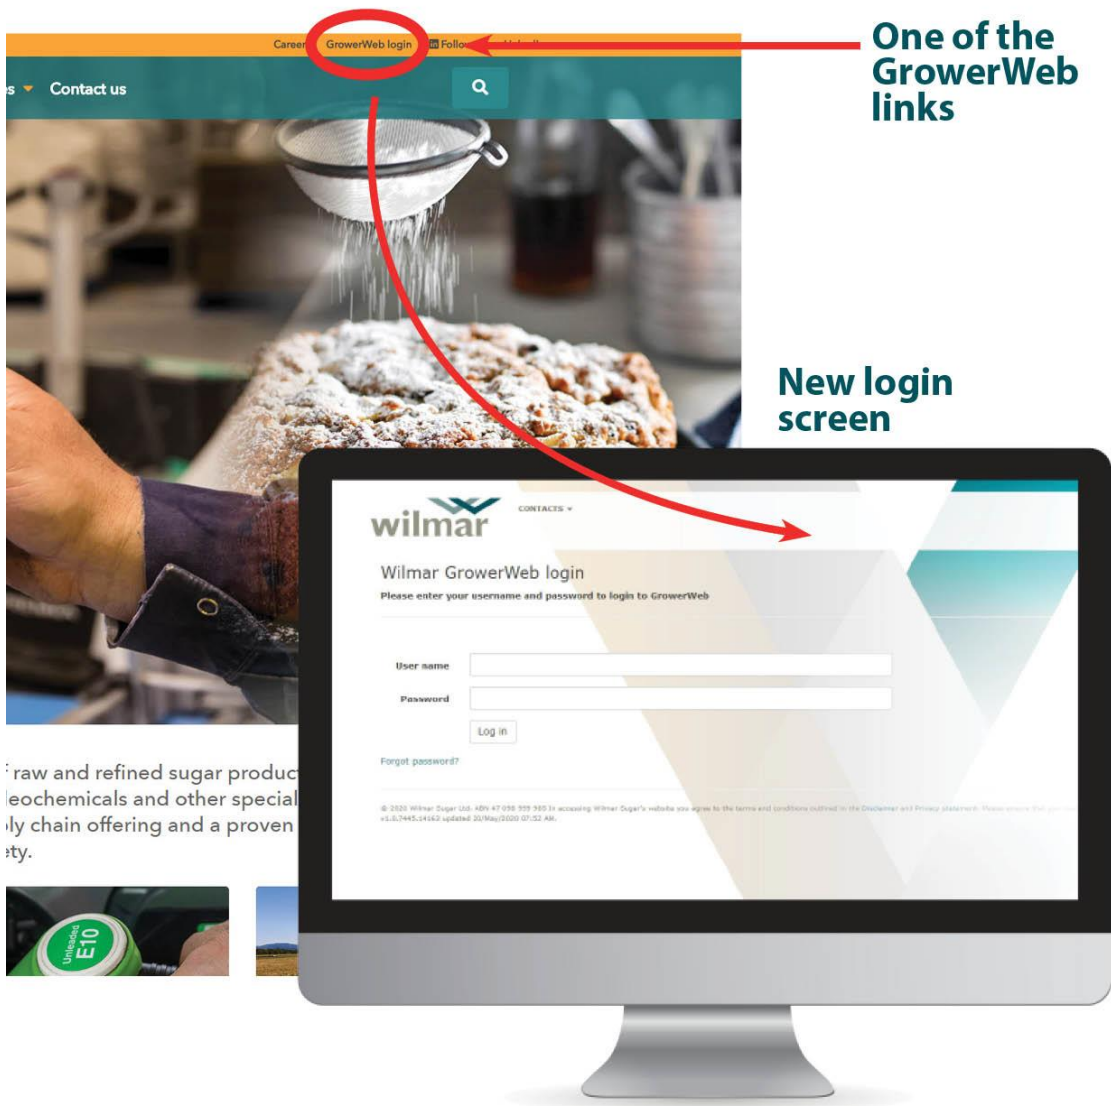

The new domain is www.wilmarsugar-anz.com.
