Celebrating our great state for Queensland Day

Did you know that tomorrow, June 6, is Queensland Day?

QSL is a proud Queensland company that's been an integral part of our state's sugar industry for nearly a century, returning over $12 billion to Queensland cane growers and sugar millers in the past decade alone.

This
QLD DAY
6 JUNE 2020

we say thanks

As we mark our great state's birthday during the current COVID-19 pandemic, we'd like to recognise the wonderful Queensland spirit being shown each and every day by our staff and all members of our industry around the state.

From Mossman to Maryborough, the QSL team is ready for the harvest ahead and focused on working hard for the thousands of Queensland cane growers and millers who rely on our services.

Invitation to LIVE sugar market event

A promotional poster for a QSL Sugar Market Update event. The background is a dark blue color with various yellow and white graphic elements, including arrows, a sun-like shape, and a stylized sugar cane stalk. On the left side, there is a portrait of Ginette Barrett, a woman with long brown hair, wearing a black sleeveless top, smiling. To the right of the portrait, the text 'QSL' is written in large white letters, with a yellow graphic above it. Below 'QSL', the text 'Sugar Market Update' is written in white. Underneath that, it says 'With Ginette Barrett, Treasury Manager' and 'Tuesday 9 June, 4pm'.

Got questions about the current sugar market? You can put them to the QSL marketing team at our live market update at 4pm this Tuesday on the QSL Facebook page. QSL Treasury Manager Ginette Barrett will cover what's influencing the sugar price, how the Aussie Dollar is holding up and the latest news about the harvest in Brazil. We'll see you there!

Your local QSL office has reopened

Following the Queensland Government's recent easing of coronavirus restrictions, your local QSL office has reopened.

To help protect the health of our growers and staff, we ask that before visiting the office you:

- Make an appointment. This helps to ensure the number of people visiting the office are within government guidelines.
- Stay home if you're not well.
- Observe the usual social distancing protocols, such as maintaining 1.5 metres from others, avoiding contact and regularly washing/sanitising your hands.

Farm visits also remain available.

To make an appointment, please contact your local QSL team.

Key dates for grower-managed pricing

Individual Futures Contract & Self-Managed Harvest: 15 June

15 June 2020 is the Pricing Completion Date for growers using QSL's Individual Futures Contract (IFC) and/or Self-Managed Harvest (SMHP) pricing products.

Growers with unfilled IFC or SMHP orders against the July 2020 ICE 11 Contract after this date will have their orders priced by QSL at the next market opportunity. For more details about the IFC, please click here. You can find details regarding the SMHP by clicking here.

Target Price Contract: 22 June

22 June 2020 is the last day for growers using the QSL Target Price Contract to achieve 2020-Season targets before any unpriced tonnes are transferred (rolled) into the next contract and roll costs may apply. To see the latest indicative roll adjustment, please click here.

Please contact your local QSL Growers Services Team with any queries around these dates or pricing products.

Meet the QSL team working for you

FACE OF QSL: Barbara Roberts

Assistant Manager Treasury and Risk

Hi, my name is Barbara Roberts, and I'm the Assistant Manager Treasury and Risk at QSL.

I've been working at QSL for nearly two years and am part of the QSL Marketing Team based in Brisbane. My role is to assist with managing sugar and currency trading.

One of the things I love about my job is the challenge - the sugar industry in Australia is very dynamic.

I am originally from Brazil, of Italian descent and soon to be an Australian citizen!

Did you know that QSL has been serving the Queensland sugar industry for nearly a century, and is proudly Queensland based and focused, with staff in 14 locations around the state. Our Face of QSL segment aims to help you meet the great team working for you, and will run on Wednesday on our Facebook page, and every Friday in the QSL Weekly Update.

QSL Grower Representative Members elections

YOUR marketing company
Your SAY
Make your vote COUNT

Just 7 days to get your nomination in

QSL is encouraging cane growers from across the state to consider nominating a local grower or putting their own name forward to become a QSL Grower Representative Member.

Our Grower Representative Members are volunteers who provide vital feedback to QSL from their regions. As well as attending regular workshops and meetings, they also play an active role in our regional engagement activities, working closely with their local QSL team to ensure their fellow growers are kept abreast of QSL news and information.

Please click on any of the following links for more details and the nomination form.
