Isis growers prepare to go Direct

QSL Managing Director and CEO Greg Beashel, General Manager Marketing Mark Hampson and Ms Kelly updated the gathering on the new QSL Direct arrangements coming into place for local growers from the 2023 Season, as well as the latest happenings on the sugar market. QSL representatives will contact Isis growers over coming weeks to book an appointment to complete the QSL Direct sign-on process, but are available to answer questions from their new temporary Childers office, located upstairs in the Canegrowers Isis building.

Storage & handling agreement update

Following a number of queries from suppliers, QSL this week released an update on its decision to reject Sugar Terminals Limited's new Storage and Handling Agreement (SHA). The SHA is the contract between the marketers using Queensland's bulk sugar terminals, and STL, the owner of these terminals.
