2022 Season comes to a close

The results for the 2022 Season have been finalised and all QSL Growers have now received their final 2022-Season Advance payment.

The 2022 QSL Shared Pool finished at $35.99/tonne actual (including Loyalty Bonus), marking its third consecutive season above $30/tonne.

The best performing 2022-Season QSL-managed pool was the US Quota, returning $1129/tonne gross actual ($980.48/t net IPS), with the QSL Harvest Pool returning $636.11/tonne gross actual ($649.75/t net IPS).

QSL's full 2022-Season results can be found by clicking here.

The QSL Shared Pool value may vary between milling regions as a reflection of local arrangements.*

QSL finalist in Export Awards

QSL has been named as a finalist in the Premier of Queensland's Export Awards in both the Agribusiness, Food and Beverages, and Professional Services categories.

The Awards, now in their 33rd year, recognise Queensland businesses for their innovation, resilience and determination, as they strive to grow and expand their global footprints.

Winners will be announced on 18 October and will go on to represent Queensland at the national titles in November.

A full list of finalists can be found by clicking here.

PIN access for the QSL App

In order to enhance account security and improve ease of access, the QSL App now requires all QSL Direct users to use a PIN or face/thumbprint recognition to access their accounts.

Users who do not already have this feature enabled will be prompted to do so when opening the latest version of the app. A PIN re-set function has also been added to the menu.

To access these new features, please update your QSL App, available free in the Apple and Google Play Stores. For assistance with setting up your PIN or installing/updating the QSL App, please see your local QSL team.
