As you know, industrial action has hindered our ability to prepare factories for the start of production.

- Today, we received formal notification that unions intend to suspend overtime bans until early next week, when wages employees will participate in a secret ballot to vote on the company's latest EA offer.
- This means we will be in a position to start the season in the Burdekin next week.
- Planned start dates are:
 - Inkerman Mill - Monday 10 June
 - Invicta Mill - one side Wednesday 12 June; dual sides Thursday 13 June
 - Kalamia Mill - Thursday 13 June
 - Pioneer Mill - Monday 17 June
- Given the uncertainty around industrial action, we recommend that growers cut green for Monday's and Tuesday's supply to Inkerman Mill.
- Should there be further industrial action, start dates may be impacted.
- We will continue to keep you informed.

Best regards

JOHN TAIT
