

QSL Weekly Update

6 December 2024

Annual Grower Survey

QSL has launched its Annual Grower Survey with QSL Direct Pricing Managers and primary contacts in non-QSL Direct regions sent a link to the survey via email last week. To help us deliver the best possible service and products, growers are encouraged to take a few minutes to provide their feedback. Hardcopy surveys are also available through your local QSL team.

QSL CEO appointed Global Sugar Alliance Chair

At a time of extreme uncertainty in the world trade environment, the Global Sugar Alliance proudly celebrated its 25th anniversary at a landmark meeting in London. Established in 1999, the Alliance has been and continues to be steadfast in its commitment to securing a world where the trade in sugar and ethanol flows freely.

Members expressed their gratitude to retiring Chairman Greg Beashel for his dedicated service, welcomed Mark Hampson (Managing Director, QSL) as the new Global Sugar Alliance Chairman, and celebrated Dr Somchai Harnhirun (Chairman designate, Thai Sugar Millers Corporation) appointment as the Alliance's first Vice-Chair.

Women in Sugar Conference

QSL is proud to be sponsoring the Women in Sugar Conference again in 2025. Scheduled to take place on 31 March and 1 April 2025 in Mackay, the event theme is 'Honouring All Women in Sugar'. More information is available by clicking here.

Harvest Pool Opt Out

QSL Direct growers can leave the 2024-Season Harvest Pool at any time and price more themselves via QSL's Harvest Pool Opt Out.

Just choose to Opt Out and any of your Harvest Pool tonnage which has not already been priced by QSL will be transferred to the QSL Self-Managed Harvest Contract so you can price it yourself. For more information, contact your local team.

2024-Season commitment concerns

Worried about meeting your pricing commitments?

QSL has a range of mechanisms available to help address overcommitment and growers who are worried about delivering enough sugar to satisfy their 2024-Season orders should contact the QSL Central Region team as soon as possible to discuss their options.
